PLEDGE FOR ONLINE SAFETY

I will not give out personal information.

I will talk to my parent/guardian before I send a picture of myself online.

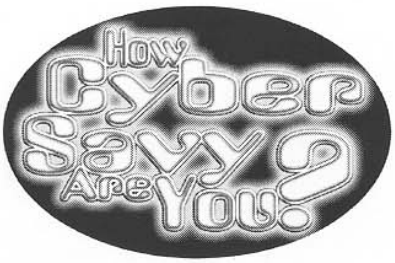
I will get permission before meeting someone face to face from the Internet.

I will discuss computer rules with my parent/guardian.

I will keep my password to myself.

_____ _____

TEEN PARENT/GUARDIAN



1. Your friend sent you a great joke, you respond with
A. ROFLOL
B. ha-ha-ha
C. funnyyyy

2. You're in a chatroom when someone starts using obscene language toward you, you should
A. tell them they're a jerk.
B. keep chatting with them to see how nasty they can be.
C. stop chatting with them, and tell your parent/guardian immediately.

3. [[[[[[[[[[Cathy]]]]]]]]]] means
A. Cathy is a cheerleader.
B. Cathy got detention.
C. you're sending Cathy a big hug.

4. You're in a chatroom with someone you recently met online. You seem to have a lot in common with them. They're asking for your address or telephone number. You should
A. give it to them.
B. ask them for theirs first.
C. tell them you never give out personal information on the internet.

5. When deciding on a password, you should
A. use your name, it's easy to remember.
B. choose a password that will be difficult for anyone to guess.
C. use your birthday, it's easy to remember.

6. You see someone at school you like. A friend gave you their email address. You send them 10-15 messages everyday telling them how good they look and how much you want to get together. They email back and tell you to stop sending them messages. You should
A. continue sending them messages because they are just playing "hard to get".
B. stop sending the messages. If you continue you can be charged with "stalking", a crime in Michigan.
C. start sending messages to their friends, telling them how much you like that person.

7. You received a message from a company you know nothing about, saying you have won a free stereo and bike. To receive your "prize" you have to give them your name, social security number, and credit card number. You should
A. give your name and social security number.
B. give them your parent's credit card number.
C. don't give any personal information over the internet.

8. IRL means
A. I Ride Lamas
B. I Really Like
C. In Real Life

9. If someone from the internet wants to meet you, you should
A. secretly meet them at a place you both know.
B. never meet someone from the internet without your parent/guardian's permission. If you have permission, meet in a public place accompanied by your parent/guardian.
C. sneak out of the house and have a friend go with you to meet them.

SCORING:

Every right answer is +1. Every wrong answer is –1.

Scores over "6", you're Cyber Savy, with scores "6" and under, you take too many unsafe risks on the internet.

Survey Answers:

1.A 2.C 3.C 4.C 5.B 6.B 7.C 8.C 9.B